TAFT SAYS HE WOULD NOT TRUST ANTI-LEAGUE SENATORS OVER NIGHT

San Francisco, Feb. 20.—"The gentlemen in the Senate who are setting out to defeat this league of nations are those I would not trust over night," former President William R. Taft said today at a luncheon given in his honor by civic organizations as a part of the program of the Pacific Coast Congress for the League to Enforce Peace.

"They are citing the constitution as an argument against it," continued Mr. Taft.

"I revere and worship that great instrument and it is a new story to me if the constitution prevents this people from playing their part in bringing peace and order and happiness to ourselves and other peoples of the world.

"This is not a political question, God forbid. I am glad President Wilson went to Europe because he was bearing a promise of a league of nations.

"The application at this time of the doctrine of avoiding entangling alliances is reactionary to the extent of delaying world peace 100 years. The question at this time is whether the whole great plan of the league of nations is to be defeated because we can't get a two-thirds majority of our Senate for its ratification."

Paris, Feb. 20.—Was the attack upon Premier Clemenceau's life of Bolshevik origin? In a question being insistently asked here, The Matin today recalls that a few days ago a Geneva newspaper announced that the Helvetic Viki, Switzerland, were plotting against his life and that two Bolsheviks had crossed the frontier to carry out the plan. The Paris police, says the Petit Parisien, were warned some time ago that a plot was brewing against the premier's life. It states that the wife of a member of the French Consular service formerly stationed in Russia, overheard a discussion which made her sure that an attempt against the Premier was in preparation.

Premier Clemenceau, who was wounded in the shoulder yesterday in the attempt by the young anarchist, Raoul Cottin, to assassinate him, was in a satisfactory condition this morning according to the latest reports. No fever has developed. It was stated at the Premier's residence at 5.30 o'clock this morning that he had passed an excellent night. Monsieur Clemenceau is impatient to resume his place at the head of the peace conference. As he referred to the subject in his conversation with those around him, he gives the impression of being able to resume the sittings again in four or five days for he keeps repeating "It is nothing." Since Theodor, a man, who nursed the Premier a few years ago, is now attending him at his request, The Premier's mind was never clearer or his thoughts more rapid. Expressions of sympathy have poured in from every part of the world. Chautau four Decadlin, who was with the Premier when he was shot was decorated by Major General Decadlin upon order from Monsieur Clemenceau. The ceremony took place in the room occupied by the Premier.

London, Feb. 20.—(The peace conference at Paris has decided to adjourn as a result of the attack upon Premier Clemenceau, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Paris, there will be no session of the congress today.

On Board the U. S. S. Steamer Geo. Washington—President Wilson has sent the following message of condolence on learning of the attack upon Premier Clemenceau: "Lansing, American Mission, Paris—Please convey to Monsieur Clemenceau my heart felt sympathy and my joy at his escape. I sincerely hope that the report that he was only slightly injured is altogether true. I was deeply shocked about the news of the attack. Woodrow Wilson."

CLERGY GATHER TO HONOR CARD. JAS. GIBBONS

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 20.—Clergy and lay of Roman Catholics gathered here today to pay homage to the venerable head of the church in the United States, James (Cardinal) Gibbons at the celebration of his golden Episcopal jubilee. Pope Benedict was represented by Archbishop Corbett who came from Rome to bring the Pontifical blessing to the great prelate in testimony of his services as bishop and archbishop for half a century and as a cardinal since 1885. Dignitaries of the church said the celebration was the most notable gathering of Roman Catholics in North America for more than 30 years, including Cardinal O'Connell, of Boston, Cardinal Beilin, of Canada, Archbishop Bunzano, the Papal nuncio in the United States and a great host of archbishops, bishops and missionaries. The lay membership was represented by distinguished business men and government officials. Extreme simplicity marked the celebration, Thanksgiving that the "blessed sun of peace" has dawned and praise for the work of the papacy in attempting to mitigate the horrors of war formed the theme of the reply of Cardinal Gibbons to addresses of congratulation. He paid a tender tribute to the late Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul "the patriot whom his fellow citizens loved to honor."

(By Associated Press)
Boston, Feb. 20.—The steamer Geo. Washington bringing President Wilson and Mrs. Wilson from France, will reach Boston on Monday according to an official message from the steamer received today by Rear Admiral Spencer S. Wood, commanding the First Naval District. The message was relayed by the battleship New Mexico, flagship of the convoying fleet. It did not indicate the hour at which the President's ship might be expected. The New Mexico has been in direct wireless communication with the First Naval District for the past 48 hours and yesterday sent word that the George Washington had received messages sent by Mayor Andrew J. Peters and others but could not reply because of atmospheric conditions.

HARMONY KEYNOTE OF SENATE SESSION

Concord, Feb. 20.—The great legislative knock-down-and-drag-out battle for today in the state senate as an appetizer for the state reception and ball to Gov. John H. Bartlett and the new state government will not come off at all; on account of the inability of several senators to occupy the ring-side seats reserved for them, the debate and vote on the governor's trustee bill has been postponed until Tuesday morning.

This means instead of knives and stilettos in the senate, there will be a floral debate in the house of representatives, a fitting preliminary to the executive ball tonight. The "special order" will come up as to whether the apple blossom or the purple lilac shall be the official state flower, and whichever wins out, it will be a rush order for the decorators to bedeck the dancing pavilion with the official flower in time for the grand march.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 40c and 25c per box. All druggists.

GOV. MILLIKEN SENDS SPECIAL MESSAGE

Augusta, Me., Feb. 19.—Gov. Milliken of Maine, today in a special message to the Legislature transmitting the biennial budget of the state, urged the submission of two constitutional amendments to the voters. One would change the amount which the state may borrow in a year as a temporary loan from $300,000 to $2,000,000. The other would make possible the issuing of highway bonds to the amount of at least $10,000,000 for the reconstruction of bridges and roads.

The present limit of the temporary loan was fixed in 1817, when the total cost of maintenance of the state was but $103,785.62, so that a borrowing capacity of $300,000 was sufficient, but now, with the expenditures amounting to $3,000,000 and $2,000,000 annually, it is far from sufficient.

The Governor frowned upon the suggestion of an addition to the State House as inexpedient at this time, saying there was more urgent need for expenditures in other ways. He strongly recommended providing for the construction of a memorial bridge across the Piscataqua river between Kittery Me. and Portsmouth, N. H.

A recommendation of the budget, with a provision of finance therefor, is that an investigation of the ownership and development of all undeveloped water powers in Maine be made. It also makes provision for medical and dental inspection in public schools and the encouragement of towns to form health unions.

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 19.—Representatives of the Building Trades Association and the building trades unions, failed to reach any agreement, here today while in conference with the army and labor departments, to prevent a country wide strike. SENATE ADOPTS CANAL SURVEY

Washington, Feb. 19.—Survey for a canal connecting the Merrimack river in Massachusetts and the Piscataqua river in New Hampshire is provided in an amendment to the rivers and harbors bill proposed by Senator Moses today and adopted by the Senate. The canal would be a link in the proposed intercoastal waterway system between Maine and Florida.

Such a canal, if laid out along the route generally advocated, would leave the Piscataqua river near Portsmouth, N. H., travel cross-country to a point on the Merrimack just above Newburyport, Mass. It would be about 20 miles long. Both rivers are navigable for coastwise vessels as far as the proposed canal entrance.

Portsmouth, N. H., Thursday, February 20, 1919.

Welcome Home!

It is a most appropriate program that has been arranged for the Welcome Home observance to be held Sunday afternoon at the Colonial Theatre under the auspices of the War Camp Community Service. The details have appeared in the columns of this paper, and there is a public interest in the event which will undoubtedly fill the theatre to the doors.

There will be good music, with speaking by the Governor and others. The clergymen of the city and vicinity have been invited to attend and take part, and it is hoped that every returned soldier and sailor in Portsmouth and the surrounding towns will be present to enjoy the exercises and be impressed by the appreciation which the people of the city and region have for the valiant work they have done.

For some time the "boys" have been returning from the camps and from overseas a few at a time. Not all who went have yet returned, but so many are home that it was felt that a formal welcome would be proper at this time. There will probably be further occasions of the kind later on, as there well may be, for there are many more to return from the fields where they covered themselves with glory and reflected the greatest credit on the state and region from which they went in response to their country's call.

The War Camp Community Service has done well in arranging this excellent program, embracing such an invigorating variety of appropriate and patriotic features, which cannot fail to reflect the appreciation by the local public of the work done and sacrifices made by the men whom the occasion is designed to honor.

Portsmouth's contributions to the war, in men and money, have been generous. From the time the United States entered the conflict this city and the surrounding towns have stood steadily at the post of duty, and no legitimate call on their efforts and resources has been unanswered. The record of the folks at home is as gratifying as that made by the men at the front, and all should enter into this welcoming event in the spirit in which it was designed and will be carried out.

Next Sunday should be a memorable day in the history of Portsmouth, and it will be. The occasion and the program are such as must appeal strongly to old and young, and beyond question the exercises will be conducted in a manner reflecting the highest credit upon all taking part in any capacity.

The farmers of a Massachusetts county have been "questioned" on the subject of employing returned soldiers on their farms the coming season. The answers disclose no enthusiasm, and a belief that few soldiers will seek to engage in farm work. And without doubt the farmers are correct in their view of the situation.

A number of American sailors who have been interned at Constantinople have married Turkish women and decided to remain in Turkey. The "league of nations" idea seems to be spreading, and it is to be hoped that these men may exert a civilizing influence upon their fellow countrymen—by marriage.

The Philippines are calling for the right of self-determination, the people claiming that they are now qualified for self-government. And there are people in this country who are hoping the time will come when they can have something to say about their own affairs.

The state of Maine is selling at auction automobiles taken from booze runners, who have been very active in that state for some time past. There will probably be spirited bidding, but it would be even more so if the vehicles had not been relieved of their "jags."

A public man of ability and wide reputation passes by the death of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, former premier of Canada. He had an honorable and distinguished public career and will be remembered as one of the foremost men of the Dominion in his day and generation.

The Anti-Saloon League is calling on the Peace Conference for "trade agreements" which will not embarrass it when prohibition goes into effect. Isn't the provision of the law which prohibits importation enough?

The suffrage amendment was lost in the United States Senate by the narrow margin of one vote. Possibly the result might have been different if there had been less demonstration by the suffragists at the national capital.

It is highly probable that when President Ebert of Germany started in to learn the harness making trade he never dreamed that he would ultimately land in "the saddle."

An elderly Vermont couple is reported to have offered a $5,000 farm free to some returned soldier or sailor. Don't all speak at once, please.

12 YEARS FOR BOY SLAYER

Boston, Feb. 20.—Nathan Schwartz, the 15-year-old youth, who shot and killed Emil Krimbe, the butler at the home of Mrs. Horatio N. Slater, 418 Beacon street on the night of Nov. 10, 1917, was sent to the state prison for a term of not less than 12 nor more than 15 years upon his plea of guilty to the charge of manslaughter. The boy had been examined by several attorneys at the instance of District Attorney Pelletier, and was sent at one time to the Psychopathic Hospital for observation. Several opposed opinions concerning his mental condition were given, but finally it was agreed that he was not mentally unbalanced to the extent of precluding his being placed on trial, but was peculiar and mentally weak.

In view of this fact Mr. Pelletier accepted the plea of guilty instead of placing the young man on trial on the charge of murder in the first degree on the indictment which had been returned by the grand jury against him.

PEACE ENVOYS TO MAKE SPURT

Paris, Feb. 20.—A strong movement has been undertaken by leading plenipotentiaries to bring the peace conference to an end within the shortest possible time. The American and British delegates have discussed this matter at some length and the French and Italians have been approached.

SCENERY SPOILED BY "ADS"

Boston, Feb. 20.—Billboards and other outdoor advertising signs were characterized before the legislative committee on local affairs Tuesday as "infernal disfigurements" by Judge Robert Wallace of Cambridge. Robert D. Chapp, a member of the constitutional convention, while favoring bills to prohibit these signs, cautioned against interfering with property rights.

VACCINE WORKING IN THE GRIP

Boston, Feb. 20.—The discovery of a vaccine with which 10,000 persons in Boston have been treated will soon be announced by the officials of the Massachusetts Homeopathic Hospital on East Concord street.

The formal report of these tests, it was intimated yesterday, will show how people treated were protected from danger during the influenza epidemic.

Dr. Henry M. Pollock, superintendent of the hospital, stated that the series of tests indicates a more hopeful outlook in preventing both influenza and pneumonia.

The vaccine, like that used in smallpox, furnishes a means of warding off the disease, rather than of effecting a cure.

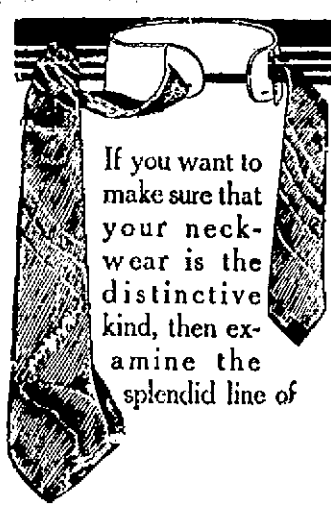

The discovery was made in the bacteriological department under the direction of Dr. W. H. Watters.

Cases given the vaccine include large numbers of nurses, physicians and others at the hospital and also different groups of employees of a number of large Boston business concerns.

Bacteriological tests have proved the presence not only of influenza germs in those having the disease but also streptococci, pneumococci, micrococci, enteric and staphylococci, all differing forms of bacilli.

A number of vaccines made from these specific germs, including one each for the first three types of pneumonia, were one day combined in the laboratory and the combination used in preventive treatment for a small group of persons who either had been exposed to disease or were living and working in a group where the disease had made its appearance.

The results proved so hopeful the hospital authorities were encouraged to continue further experiments with the vaccine. Its use was extended to nurses, physicians and patients, and through the hospital physicians to outside groups of workers.

Vaccine is obtained by passing the toxin of a particular bacillus through the body of an animal and then with an amount of the resulting weakened product produced by injection into the human being a mild vaccine (as in the case of smallpox) which thus aids in increasing the immunization of the subject against the disease germ attacker.

Captain George A. Hill

News has been received in this city of the death in Mexico of Captain George A. Hill of this city. Captain Hill, since the war began, has been in the transport service and was first officer of one of the liners running between Mexico, New York and England. While in Mexico he was taken ill and died at a shore hospital on January 15th. It appeared that his papers went on with the ship and it was not until the American consul had notified the Neptune Club of New York of which he was a member, that word reached his relatives in this city. He was for some years in command of army transports.

Captain Hill was born in this city and he was 54 years of age. He was the son of the late Daniel and Jane (Thompson) Hill and when a young man he went to sea. He rapidly rose in the service and at the time of his

Benjamin F. Canney

Benjamin F. Canney, who died on Tuesday afternoon at his home on Jackson street, was one of the few veterans of the old Eastern railroad. He was born in Salem, Mass., on June 3, 1857, the son of Benjamin and Emily Canney. His father was one of stage and mail drivers of those days and the advent of the railroad caused him to look for another job.

In 1881 his parents moved to this city, his father having been appointed baggage master under Depot Master Charles Amable. Young Canney began his railroad career when he worked all summer as water boy for the section crew that was laying the rails between this city and Newburyport, while engaged in this work Abraham Marston, who fired the locomotive Onward for Engineer Maxwell was called away by the death of a relative and young Canney was pressed into service as a fireman. After that he held odd times. In 1883-4 he was brakeman on the passenger train which made a round trip daily between this city and Boston. The following year in 1885 he went to Boston where he had charge of the freight shifting in the company's yard. After working a year in this capacity he was given charge of the freight train between Boston and this city.

On one occasion when Mr. Canney was a brakeman his train was four days in reaching Boston from this city owing to a heavy snowstorm. In 1886, when the company was desirous of transferring him to Boston, Mr. Canney left the railroad and engaged in the teaming business, also conducting a coal and wood yard. In politics he was a Democrat and served in the city council and in the board of assessors. He was for many years a member of Pleasantville Lodge, I. O. O. F. He is survived by one son, Frank W. Canney of this city.

Mr. Canney was a man who held the respect of the entire community and had many friends.

PROF. DANA TO TALK AT FORUM

Prof. Henry W. N. Dana, formerly of the Columbia University and Editor of the Magazine Forward, will be the speaker at the Metal Trades Public Forum on Sunday afternoon at the Portsmouth Theatre. He will deliver an address on "Hugstia," a subject that he is very familiar with.

Prof. Dana is a grandson of Henry Longfellow and he has been on the platform for many years as a public speaker.

The committee on the Forum are seeking to get an expert from the Internal Revenue Department at Boston, to deliver a talk on the Income Tax, which this year will effect so many workmen. Every single man making over $1,000 and every married man with over $2,000 will have to make a report, and it is a question that will be of great interest. The Committee are seeking to get the best talent available and want it understood that it is no one-sided affair, but that both sides of public questions will be discussed.

WILL ATTEND GOVERNORS BALL

EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

If feverish, bilious, constipated, give fruit laxative at once.

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; if it is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

cially the smaller towns taking up the district nursing and contributing it with the school nurse, thereby given the very best service. She maintained that every city of any size should have a competent school nurse and experience had shown that it was a saving proposition to the cities from even a financial standpoint, on the ground that for each day a child misses school, and for a year that a child is retarded in school such as doing a grade two years, means so much actual money lost to the city. With a school nurse to guard the health of children, and to warn the parents when they need the services of a physician, there was sure to be better health among the children and better attendance in school.

ROOMMATE MISSING SO ARE HIS CLOTHES

Harry Moran employed at the Atlantic ship yard, complained to the local police on Wednesday evening that his roommate named Burke who was employed as a rigger at the same plant, had left town and with him all of Moran's clothing.

They have a room in a house on Middle street and Wednesday morning Moran told the police that Burke complained of not feeling well and that he was going to remain at home for the day. When he arrived back at the end of the day's work, he found Burke gone and with him all of his clothing, he cleared out two suit cases full including two suits, an overcoat, and valued at over $150.

He had met Burke at the plant and they had agreed to room together and he supposed that he was straight. He did not know where Burke came from.

The Independents who by a mistake were reported when they were defeated by the 79 team, as the second team, a mistake that was corrected on the part of 79, came back at them last evening and won hands down. Y. M. C. A. SUPPER WELL ATTENDED LAST NIGHT

Another in the series of Wednesday night suppers was served last evening at the Y. M. C. A. building by the Woman's Auxiliary and attended by 50 or more men.

The inviting menu included pot roast, potatoes, squash, creamed carrots, hot rolls, apple lactose pudding with whipped cream, coffee and cocoa.

During the serving the high school orchestra rendered pleasing selections under the direction of Ernest Hilbrich, musical director of the local schools. The supper concluded an informal program was given, which included selections by the orchestra, vocal solos by Freeman Caswell, vocal duets by Mrs. William Laird and Mrs. Everett Seavey and a vocal solo by Mrs. Laird. Misses Evelyn Badger and Blanche Pettigrew acted as accompanists. The company then gathered about the piano and popular airs were sung.

It is planned to have an informal musical program each week that a supper is served.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitter-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are usually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known as "Bitter-Phosphate," which is inexpensive and is sold by D. W. Adams in Portsmouth and most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, Bitter-Phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

This increase in weight, also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, soon disappear. Still eyes become bright, and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

CAUTION:—Although Bitter-Phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, it should not be taken by its sugar-coated flesh-growing properties, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.

TELEPHONE WORKERS PLAN A BIG STRIKE

(By Associated Press)

Boston, Feb. 19.—The New England joint council of Telephone and Telegraph employees, have set Feb. 26 as the date for a vote on the question of a strike, in the New England and the Providence Telephone companies. The strike is ordered on account of the fact that the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers has failed to get the Post Office department to increase wages or allow the men to bargain collectively. The strike vote will be counted on Feb. 28.

MORE ABOUT THE 26'S RETURN

Boston, Feb. 19.—The famous Yankee Division will sail having more changes in plans, the first part of April.

And this is official—also barring more changes in plans.

It comes from Pershing himself in a cablegram that reached Washington today at 9:03. The cable was addressed to Congressman Alvan T. Fuller. It reads:

"In reference to the statement by Gen. March yesterday to the effect that the sailing of the 26th would be delayed several months, I take pleasure in telling you I have received an answer to my cable to Gen. Pershing, asking him to clear up the confusion resulting."

Mr. Fuller then read Pershing's cable. At the Northeast Department it was said today the 26th Division has not yet been assigned to early conveyance, though the operations division of the general staff is now engaged in working out plans for the return of the division. This word was received by the Northeast Department from Washington today.

Washington also hazarded to guess the division would return to the United States by way of the port of Boston. This was the first official news received here from the war department. It was contained in a dispatch sent to Col. A. W. Yates and was made public by Maj. Michael J. Moore, assistant adjutant of the department.

It was the belief of department officials at least three ships will be required to bring the division home. The latest report of the strength of the division issued Jan. 31, says:

Officers, 918; enlisted men 27,501.

STONES FLY AT HAVERHILL

Haverhill, Mass., Feb. 20.—Three men were struck by stones Wednesday night during a scuffle between supporters of the Boot and Shoe Workers' union and of the Shoe Workers' Protective union. They were not seriously hurt. Members of the Protective union charged that the Austin H. Perry shoe company discriminated against that organization by signing a contract with the Boot and Shoe Workers' union recently, and a number of stone encounters have occurred as a result of the rivalry between the two unions. Two of the men hit were members.

"THE LONE WOLF" ONE OF THE REALLY GREAT MOTION PICTURES

The following appeared in the New York Tribune of yesterday and refers to the same big feature picture which is showing tonight at the Colonial Theatre, Portsmouth:

"The Lone Wolf" appears again in a story called 'The False Faces,' by Louis Joseph Vance, which is being shown in picture form at the Rivoli this week.

Henry B. Walthall is the star, and the picture itself is the sort which picture palaces always refer to as a 'super-production.'

This term has been applied so often that it has come to mean no more than 'different' or 'wonderful.' But one may at least say that it is a superlative production, which it truly is.

After it was finished we just wondered how Thomas Ince ever had done it, not because we mistrust Mr. Ince's ability, but because it seems such a huge undertaking. No picture has been spared to make the picture perfect in detail and nothing is fit to the imagination.

It is terribly complicated and involved, but gradually the threads are untangled and woven into the pattern until the story is complete.

The picture opens in 'No Man's Land,' and you have no idea what you are going to see or what connection it may have with the story. You only know that the scenes are fascinating and the photography is as beautiful as you ever have looked at. And then, out of the shell-torn earth, crawls 'The Lone Wolf' with a message from the enemy lines.

Walthall does not understand it.

in these scenes and we like him so much better as a battle-scarred emissary than as merely a conventional lover, which he becomes later in the play.

We cannot attempt to tell anything of the plot after this, for 'The Lone Wolf' is sent to America, and the ship Hughes of Dover for the defendant, on which he sails is filled with German agents and he is thrown overboard and is brought up by U-boat 56, and he meets Verella Brooks, also on a diplomatic mission. And just when you think that things are beginning to straighten out, suddenly Jan Chaney steals a cylinder or fires a bomb or shoots a man, and they start all over again.

"The False Faces" is one of the best war pictures we have ever seen. There are some people in it who are new to Arterian audiences. Mary Anderson is the heroine. She is, somehow, suddenly to have grown up. The last time we saw her she was playing little girl parts with Vitaphone. The villain is Lon Chaney, who has been seen for years with Vitaphone. He is excellent as Helstrom, the Hun. The picture was directed by Lynn V. Wherry and is the best production of Thomas Ince.

"St. Jacobs Liniment" is a harmless rheumatism and sciatica relief which never disappoints and can not burn or discolor the skin. Limber up! Get a small trial bottle from your druggist, and in just a moment you'll be free from rheumatic and sciatic pain, soreness, stiffness and swelling. Don't suffer! FINAL PLANS BEING ARRANGED FOR SUNDAY SERVICE

Plans for the patriotic meeting at the Colonial Theatre next Sunday afternoon at four o'clock and the demobilization of the service flag stars are being perfected and it bids fair to be a notable service.

The arrangements are being made by the War Camp Community Service, with the co-operation of Mayor Hislop and the Chamber of Commerce.

It will be a community service and the public is cordially invited. The entire centre of the lower floor will be reserved for uniformed men, the members of Star Post No. 1, G. A. R., occupying seats of honor in the front rows. An invitation has also been sent to the Spanish War Veterans and they will occupy seats back of the Civil war veterans.

The men who have been released from the service are to occupy seats on the stage and be in uniform. It is hoped that every local man who entered the service in the world war and has been released and returned to his home in this city will make a great effort to participate in this service and be on the stage on Sunday afternoon.

When Portsmouth is to honor its "boys" who are returning home it is only fair that they co-operate and aid in every way to make this patriotic service one long to be remembered.

As over 100 men have returned from service it is expected a large number of the returning men are read the flags will be draped and then 20 or more members of the Girls' Division of the War Camp Community Service, dressed in white, will march from one of the boxes down two of the center aisles and pin silver or gold bars across the stars, silver for the men who remained in this country and gold for those who have seen service overseas. Fifteen seconds of silent tribute to the men who have fallen will be paid after the reading of the names and the placing of a chevron over each gold star.

The orchestra of the Colonial Theatre will furnish music for the service, and the community singing will be a prominent feature. Thirteen hundred victory song books have arrived from Boston, containing over 60 songs popular with the boys in the service. Alfred Hallam of Boston, community song leader, will be in charge. The procession of uniformed men will be a pleasing feature of the service.

The War Camp Community Service is making a great effort to get the names of all the returned men that invitations may be sent them.

WITH A SMALL ARMY NO FEAR FROM GERMANY

Paris, Feb. 19.—If the new armistice terms now being framed, involving disarmament of all but a sufficient number of soldiers to prevent internal disorders, are observed by the Germans, it is believed by most of the entente representatives here that France need have no further fear from that quarter and that there can be no reason for delaying the conclusion of a peace treaty.

No Longer Formidable

Capt. Walter R. Gherard, U. S. N., who has been in Germany for two weeks studying economic and general conditions, has returned to Paris and reports he found much unemployment throughout the country and a restless, dull condition that contains a threat against the peace of the immediate future.

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH

Tells How To Open Clogged of Nostrils and End Head Colds.

You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache, no yawning, sniffling, mucous discharges or dryness; no struggling for breath at night.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils. Let it penetrate through every air passage of the head, soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly.

It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable.

GRAFFORT CLUB MUSICAL WELL ATTENDED YESTERDAY

Miss Stina Lofstedt Gives Rare Program at Pierce Hall.

A large and appreciative audience gathered at Pierce Hall Wednesday afternoon to listen to the musical given by Miss Stina Lofstedt, a young soprano of Boston, who presented a choice program of Scandinavian and old Swedish folk songs with artistic ability.

Miss Lofstedt, while born in this country, has passed much time in Sweden and excels in the rendition of songs by northern and Scandinavian composers, although she renders English songs in a praiseworthy manner. This talented young artist bids fair to rapidly reach the front rank of singers. The range of her tones is wide and even throughout and the higher tones were taken fully clear without effort. The songs of the Northland were sung with the full sympathy that only an intimate knowledge of the people can give. Miss Lofstedt, reading the translations before giving the selections.

Miss Lofstedt has a pleasing, captivating manner and she greets and holds her audience in a way which adds greatly to her singing.

Part third of the program was made up of old Swedish folk songs which she rendered in costume, her picturesque appearance adding to the effect of her singing. The selection, "The American Come," in the second group of songs, was one of the numbers that made a decided hit and upon request this was later repeated.

The talented singer held her audience throughout the concert and applause was abundant and prolonged. Greater things are in store for this young artist, as a natural voice of such wide range and beauty will certainly eventually lead to great renown.

Mrs. Ira St. Clair of the Graffort club made department, accompanied Miss Lofstedt on the piano and her work added much to the brilliancy of the musicale.

The program:

Part I.—Scandinavian Songs.
The Birds' Song Soderberg
Asphodel Peterson-Henrichs
Black Bases Shedd
Accept This Wreath Sjogren
Good Morning Grig

Part II.
By the Waters of Minnetonka Lawrence
The American Come Foster
My Shadow Buckley
Part III.—Old Swedish Folk Songs.

FATHER AND SON BANQUET AT Y. M. C. A. FEB. 27TH

The Portsmouth Y. M. C. A. will hold a Father & Son Banquet Thursday, February 27th at 6:15 p. m. at the Association Building. The Father and Son Movement is now being carried on by the Y. M. C. A. everywhere. Occasionally it is highly important and very appropriate that we should turn from the busy professions of life to give our attention and whole interest to those simple relationships and virtues which are the fundamental basis of all human society and upon which the perpetuation of organized society must depend. In our busy industrial life and commercial organization the pressing matters of mill and factory, the long hours of labor and the earning of a livelihood, become of such a concern as to dim the primary relations of life. In all good family society has rested upon good family relationships and neither wages nor hours of labor, nor cost of living, nor longer matter much unless those who are to work and those who are to live, have sympathy, honor and love in their private lives, making them worthy citizens. In this busy commercial life the family becomes separated by divergent interests. Therefore we must draw the father and son closer together in their leisure hours.

While the particular event in the "Father and Son" movement in this city is the banquet, the work by no means begins and ends with that event. All through the year the Association strives to bring the boys to a realization of the importance of growing up to be worthy men, an honor to their fathers.

An interesting program is being prepared for the banquet on the 27th. Every boy must be accompanied by his father or another man. Reservations should be made on or before Tuesday, February 25th. Boys must be eleven years of age or older.

BIG ATTRACTION

The attraction which Manager Dow has booked for next Tuesday evening should be the means of packing the floor and balcony at Freeman's hall. The Chateau colored orchestra of Boston is one of the best jazz combinations in New England. The booking for Tuesday evening was made 3 months ago, no dates being available up to Tuesday, which shows the popularity of the orchestra. In addition to the orchestra Jacey Hendricks and Dot Hickey of Boston, a most popular dancing couple, will demonstrate their new modern dances. The quality of the attraction is deserving of an unusually large attendance.

Whist parties which have been held at the Armory on Thursday evenings will be held on Tuesday evenings, commencing Tuesday, Feb. 25. Whist from 8 to 10, followed by dancing.

THE BIG 3—FREEMAN'S HALL.
1. Marden's 10-piece orchestra on the 22d. Corlino Cote, dancer.
2. The Chateau colored jazz orchestra of Boston, on the 25th. Jacey Hendricks and Dot Hickey, dancers.
3. McEnelly's orchestra, March 1.

FAVORABLE REPORT ON BRIDGE

The committee on Public Improvements in the legislature have made a favorable report on the proposition for a new bridge across the river here, and they will report it to the House today, with the recommendation that it ought to pass. The bill will then go to the appropriation committee and it will be upon their report that the real action of the house will depend.

MERCHANTS WILL RECEIVE BETTER FREIGHT SERVICE

The Boston & Maine railroad has granted increased service in the freight department at Portsmouth in the following particulars: The local freight house, which has been operating at 8 a. m. for the delivery of freight, will be opened at 7 a. m. This change will enable the merchants to receive their freight much earlier and will prove of material advantage to them. The change was made after a conference between representatives of the road and receivers of perishable freight at the Chamber of Commerce on Thursday.
